Lesson Scripture:

Mark 16:1-9

Key Verse:

"Don't be alarmed," [the young man] said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen!" (Mark 16:6)

Alive!

(Mark 16:1-9)

After Jesus was crucified, Mary Magdalene, Mary (James's mother), and Salome got up early Sunday morning. They took spices to the tomb where Jesus was buried. "Who will roll the stone away?" they asked each other on the way. But when they arrived, they saw that the stone had been moved!

Looking inside the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe. They were afraid! But he said, "Don't be afraid! Jesus is not here. This is where He was, but He is alive! Go, tell His disciples and Peter." The women left right away!

Later on, Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene first!

For the Parents

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Today, your child heard about what happened right after Jesus arose. The stone was rolled away from the tomb and Jesus' friends were surprised and afraid when they saw a young man sitting inside. But he had good news: Jesus had risen from the dead! When reviewing this lesson, help your child recall times when he or she was afraid, surprised, and very happy. Compare this to the feelings of the people in today's lesson.
