Build the Fallen Puzzle

The letters of a message from today's lesson have fallen to the bottom of the puzzle. To complete the puzzle, fill in any blank spaces with just one letter that is underneath the column. The black spaces indicate the end of a word. Look for columns that only have one or two letters in the column and use the process of elimination. Cross off each letter below its column when you plug it in. (Some letters have been filled in to get you started.) Refer to today's Scripture text to complete the puzzle (if you need help).
