Theme Verse:

Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” ~ Matthew 4:19 (NLT)

Motto: I’m Hooked!

God desires that we know Him and make Him known. As we grow in our knowledge of Him, we discover His love for all people and His heart for the nations. This year during VBS, we encourage you to engage deeply with God and let Him reel you into His mission. Embracing His mission means following Jesus and being willing to share God’s message of deliverance, hope, redemption, repentance, and salvation. So, get hooked with God, grab your fishing rod, and let’s fish for those who need to hear and come into the knowledge of God’s saving grace.

As a result of experiencing these lessons, participants will . . .

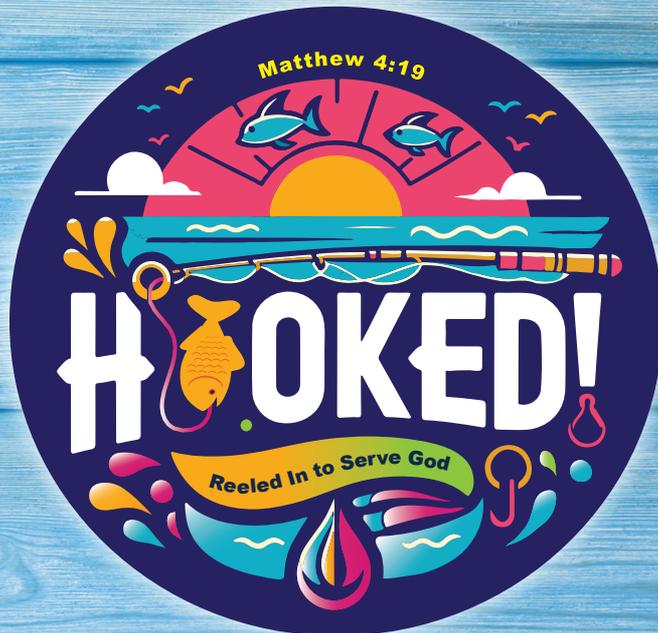

- discover God’s heart for the nations.
- share God’s message of hope and salvation with others.

Lure

When God told Jonah to go to Nineveh and warn the people about His judgment due to their wickedness, Jonah disobeyed and refused to go to Nineveh. In his attempt to flee in the opposite direction from Nineveh, God arranged for Jonah to be swallowed up by a great fish in the sea. Jonah's disobedience led to a plea for deliverance and a promise of obedience. Jonah learned there is nowhere to hide from God's presence. God's love and grace protected Jonah through his trial, giving him another chance to make things right.

Jonah 1:1-4, 12-17; 2:9-10; 3:1-3a

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai: 2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh because its wickedness has come up before me." 3 But Jonah ran away from the Lord. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After pay and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the Lord. 4 Then the Lord sent a great wind and a storm arose that the ship threatened to break up. 12 "Pick me up and throw me into the sea," he replied, "and it will become calm, this great storm has come upon you." 13 Instead, the men did their best to row out, for the sea grew even wilder than before. 14 Then they cried out to the Lord die for taking this man's life. Lure

Jonah disobeyed God's instructions to go to Ninevah because he believed the people in Ninevah were wicked and did not deserve to be saved. As a result, God arranged for Jonah to be swallowed up by a huge fish in the sea. Jonah's unimaginable consequence for not going to Ninevah would lead to a plea for deliverance and a promise to do God's will. God's grace and favor covered Jonah, and after three days, Jonah was delivered from the belly of the great fish. God told Jonah to go to Ninevah a second time, and this time, he went.

Jonah 1:1-4, 12-17; 2:9-10; 3:1-3a

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai: 2 "Go to the great city of Ninevah because its wickedness has come up before me." 3 But Jonah ran away from the Lord. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the Lord. 4 Then the Lord sent a great wind and a storm arose that the ship threatened to break up.

12 "Pick me up and throw me into the sea," he replied, "and it will become calm. The great storm has come upon you." 13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land, for the sea grew even wilder than before. 14 Then they cried out to the Lord for taking this man's life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man.

Lure

The book of Jonah opens with God calling to Nineveh, a powerful yet wicked city. Instead of obeying, Jonah flees in the opposite direction on a ship to Tarshish. When Jonah is thrown overboard, a great fish rescues him. In the fish's belly, Jonah prays and ultimately surrenders to God's call. God shows his relentless grace—pursuing, rescuing, and forgiving the disobedient to God.
